Research tells us that the average person thinks about 50,000 thoughts every day. The truth is that each one of those thought moves us either toward our God-given potential or away from it. Sadly, we live in a society bent on highlighting what is wrong with just about everything. As a result, we have grown accustomed to viewing the world and ourselves through a lens of negativity. In Philippians 4:8, the apostle Paul challenges us to seek out and dwell on the positives in our lives. When used as a filter, Philippians 4:8 is the true secret to vibrant health, satisfying relationships, lasting fulfillment and an incredible relationship with God!
