There is a trendy phrase in the fitness world right now called Functional Fitness. It believes that exercise should ultimately train and prepare your muscles to handle real-life situations. In the same way, your faith is not meant to simply make you look good as a Christian but it's meant to function in your everyday life! Today we learn how Functional Faith can replace the denial and the despair in our lives with a clear path that God is for us and wants to take our lives to another level. Throughout scripture we see God takes weak people and does great things with them through faith.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Share about a time in your life when you were trying to make changes in a particular area and your plan was not working. What did you learn about yourself in that situation?
2. Read Romans 4:18-21. Abraham was faced with a seemingly impossible situation in his life. Is there a situation in your life right now that challenges your faith that things can change? How can we follow Abraham's example in our current circumstances?
3. During the message, Peter talked about two dangerous extremes of faith: Denial and Despair. Why are they dead ends to our growth and faith? How do God's promises help us stay clear of these extremes?
4. What is the difference between feelings and faith. How can we practically move in the direction of faith and away from feelings? How can we help each other in this group do that?
5. Are you being honest with God and others about the things you want to see change in your life? Read John 12:23-26. Jesus was glorified but not in the way everyone was expecting. How can follow His example and allow our lives to help other seeds be planted?

CHANGE YOUR MIND

Without weakening in his faith, [Abraham] faced the fact that his body was as good as dead—since he was about a hundred years old—and that Sarah's womb was also dead. Yet he did not waver through unbelief regarding the promise of God, but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God, being fully persuaded that God had power to do what he had promised. Romans 4:19-21
